The Shepherd's Singers were founded in 1984 by Anna Lee Hamilton, as a part of the Mid-North Shepherd's Center, an interdenominational program for senior adults. Bob Schilling has been their director since 2005. They rehearse every Wednesday afternoon year-round, with just two 2-week recesses (after Christmas and in the summer). Their varied repertoire includes Broadway show tunes, spirituals, popular, patriotic, folk, and seasonal songs. They sing primarily for their own personal enrichment and enjoyment, but also often perform for retirement homes, civic events, and other churches. Many of the members are regularly involved in their own churches on Sunday mornings; so we are especially grateful to them for making an exception in order to be with us this morning.

Today the Cathedral Singers are joining with the choir of First Baptist in a presentation of Mark Hayes' Requiem which was performed at North on Good Friday.

The flowers on the altar are given for the glory of God and in celebration of the wedding of Irena Priddy and Jeremy Warriner on May 21, 2016.
