Film spurs local church to tell their story on National Coming Out day

Indianapolis, IN – September 17, 2013 – The public is invited as North United Methodist Church members tell their story on Saturday, October 12, 2013 at 6:00 PM in observance of National Coming Out Day. The church will screen the film AN ORDINARY FAMILY followed by a discussion with members of the church sharing their coming out experiences.

AN ORDINARY FAMILY is a humorous and poignant drama about one family, two brothers and a really big problem. The annual family reunion gets rocky when Seth arrives with his new boyfriend. No one bats an eye except his brother Thomas, a married minister. Despite a well meaning attempt to surprise everyone, things do not go as planned throwing Thomas and the family into an awkward weeklong vacation where everyone has problems and no one wants to talk about them.

National Coming Out Day is a celebration of coming out as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or as a straight ally. This film screening is in support of the Reconciling Ministries Network at North Church. Childcare is provided for free and refreshments will be sold to support Reconciling Ministries Network at North Church.
