Leader: “Consult not your fears, but your hopes and your dreams. Think not about your frustrations, but about your unfulfilled potential. Concern yourself not with what you have tried and failed in, but what it is still possible to do. Now is the time to put aside past and present setbacks and failures and look with confidence to a new day called tomorrow.”

-Pope John XXIII

All:

God both Father and Mother to us, as we gather for this meeting may we be guided by your wisdom, your love and the abiding presence of your Spirit.

Your WISDOM teaches us about what is truly important and gives us to the courage to do what is right.

Your LOVE reminds us that our compassion is not only for those we think deserving or to those it is easy to love, but is for all your children, especially those who are in need.

Your SPIRIT empowers us to recognize the ways in which we are blessed and to build a community of that is characterized by joy, creativity and a spirit of service.

Through our work may North Church be true to the spirit of the Saints that marched before us in this place and to your will as we struggle to discern it.

We make this prayer through Christ our brother, in whose name we gather and who is with us always. Amen.

Based on a prayer by The Le Chéile Schools Trust of Dublin, Ireland
